

Agreements and Expectations

(Please share with all students and faculty.)

This Museum belongs to everyone, and everyone belongs here. Our mission is to make sure that art from many different times, places, and cultures will always be available for you, your families, and future generations to come and see.

We need you to help us protect the art for everyone to enjoy!

Please:

- Be excited and curious about the artwork, but do not touch it. Keep about 12 inches of space between your body and the artwork.
- Feel free to take photographs, but be sure to turn off your flash, as bright lights can damage the artwork.
- Be considerate of other Museum visitors by sharing space.
